PROTECT YOUR CLIENTS' HEALTH AND WISHES

The DocuBank wallet card puts your clients' vital medical information and advance directives in doctors' hands instantly in an emergency. Your clients can use their cards to share allergies, medical conditions, and other medical details with their health care providers. This important information is instantly available online and via fax. You can help your clients receive the best care possible and ensure they are treated according to their life wishes by including a DocuBank membership in their estate plan.
